

“We were approached by a customer who was in the process of converting a diesel Land Rover into an EV, he wanted the transfer box and chassis 3D Scanning in order for him to carry out his own reverse engineering and to retro fit the EV motor to the vehicle.

The images accompanying highlight one of the areas we were tasked with scanning.”

